

Martin E. Marty Award for the Public Understanding of Religion

NOMINATIONS FORM

The Martin E. Marty Award for the Public Understanding of Religion, established in 1996, recognizes extraordinary contributions to the public understanding of religion. The award goes to those whose work has a relevance and eloquence that speaks, not just to scholars, but more broadly to the public as well. The contribution can be any medium (e.g., books, films, TV, public speaking), so long as it is based on scholarship in religion. Nominees need not be AAR members or academics (but need to be persons, not organizations).

January 25 is the deadline by which nominations or self-nominations must be received.

They may be:

- e-mailed to mpierre@aarweb.org
