AAR ELECTIONS
Cast your ballot to elect the future leaders of the AAR! All members should have received an email with a link to the 2015 AAR elections ballot. If you have not yet received a link to the ballot, please notify us via e-mail at nominations@aarweb.org. Be sure to include your full name and the e-mail address to which you would like the link to the ballot sent.

The following positions are on the ballot: Vice President; Treasurer; Student Director; Regions Director; and At-Large Director. Please click here for information and to view the candidate statements.

ANNUAL MEETING NEWS
Annual Meeting Housing
October 19 is the deadline to obtain our special conference rates for sleeping rooms at the Annual Meeting! There is still availability in the Sheraton Downtown Hotel. Don’t miss out on potentially saving hundreds of dollars. If you haven’t registered for the Annual Meeting, you may obtain housing during the process. If you have already registered, you may add housing by using the link in your registration confirmation email. If you don’t have that email, you may have it sent to you by emailing reg@aarweb.org.

Guides to the AAR Annual Meeting
Please check out the following guides to help you navigate this year’s Annual Meeting. Each guide is packed with useful information on how to navigate the city and the Annual Meeting itself.

Guide to the 2015 AAR Annual Meeting: For the veteran and the first-time attendee, this guide has everything you need to know.

New Member or First-Time Attendee? The AAR Annual Meeting can be overwhelming. This guide provides some good, basic information about the Annual Meeting.

International Members Traveling from outside the US? Check out this guide.

Annual Meeting Tour Space Availability
Many of our Annual Meeting tours still have space. Email reg@aarweb.org to add one to your registration. Two tours we’d especially like to highlight are below. These tours are low in cost and will be provided round trip transportation from the Hyatt Regency to Emory Campus, where you will have a private docent-led tour.

Michael C. Carlos Museum Tour – Monday November 23, 9-11:30 am
From the ancient to the modern world, the Michael C. Carlos Museum of Emory University features the largest ancient art collection in the Southeast. Some 17,000 artifacts from ancient Egypt, the Near East, Greece, Rome, the Americas, Asia, and Africa, as well as works on paper from the Renaissance to the present day, provide visitors with a glimpse into the art and history of world cultures. More information here.

Pitts Theological Library Special Collections Tour – Monday November 23, 9-11:30 am
The Pitts Theology Library is among America’s largest and most distinguished theological libraries. Participants will tour the library and the exhibit on the “Ten Commandments”. The exhibit will include texts and images from materials in the Richard C. Kessler Reformation Collection relating to the Ten Commandments, including early printed Bibles, catechisms, hymnals, sixteenth-century sermons, and commentaries. More information here.

Employment Center Registration Opens for Employers
The AAR/SBL Employment Center is now open to candidates and employers for preregistration. For further details, visit the AAR/SBL Employment Services website.

MENTORING OPPORTUNITIES!
Underrepresented Professionals: DEADLINE IS TODAY!
AAR continues its mentoring program serving underrepresented professionals; a new cohort will commence November 2015 at the Annual Meeting in Atlanta. Thirty-five doctoral students, non-tenured (i.e., pre-tenure, adjunct, contract, or hybrid administrator/faculty) faculty, and/or post-doctoral fellows will be matched with participating scholars who will serve as mentors for a period of one year.

You may apply for the mentoring program by completing this online form. The deadline for mentoring applications is October 15, 2015. Notification of program acceptance will be sent by November 5, 2015.

Have a Cup of Coffee on the AAR Mentoring Program
Registration is now open! Meet with a mentor to have an hour-long chat at the Annual Meeting -- coffee is on the AAR. This is your chance to meet with AAR leaders from the Board of Directors, Committees, and Program Units, among other groups. Appointments are made on a first-come, first-served basis. Find out how an hour with an experienced mentor can make the difference.

Women’s Mentoring Luncheon at the Annual Meeting
ONLY 25 SPACES REMAIN! Each year, the Status of Women in the Profession and the Status of Racial and Ethnic Minorities Committees organizes a luncheon during the Annual Meeting. Several mid-career and senior AAR scholars gather with newer and emerging scholars in the field to discuss pertinent issues like choosing an adviser, getting published, contract negotiation, and the challenge of balancing work and personal commitments. The lunch is cosponsored with the Women's Caucus. Pre-registration is required and the lunch costs $13. Sorry, no refunds.

A list of the mentors and more information on the Mentoring Lunch is available on the registration page.

JAAR TABLE OF CONTENTS E-MAIL ALERTS

To sign up for free Table of Contents e-mail alerts for JAAR, or notice of new Advance Access content, click here to go to the Oxford University Press Journals website. It’s quick and easy to register a free account* with OUP and select your alert options under Journal of the American Academy of Religion.

*Please note that even if you are signed in as an AAR member to view JAAR content on the OUP website, you must still set up an account with OUP to receive the free e-mail alerts. The AAR does not share your e-mail with OUP; you will provide your e-mail address during the OUP account setup.

AAR GRANTS NEWS

These two annual grants, designed to support AAR student members whose dissertation research requires them to travel outside of the country in which their school or university is located, are intended to help candidates complete their doctoral degrees by offsetting costs of travel, lodging, and other dissertation research-related expenses.

The deadline to apply is December 1, 2015. For information about the program, please visit the web page.

2016 AAR AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

Are you an AAR member who is passionate about your profession and guild? Do you enjoy sharing your knowledge and enthusiasm?
Do you think AAR membership is an important part of your professional life? If so, the AAR invites you to join the AAR Ambassador Program!

The AAR Ambassador program helps get information out to people about the study of religion and AAR programs. Ambassadors act as a point of contact for the AAR at your institution. It is a great way to volunteer in the AAR without leaving your office. Apply to be a 2016 AAR Ambassador today!

MEMBER SATISFACTION SURVEY - TELL US WHAT YOU THINK!
What matters to you in your AAR membership? Let us know by completing the Member Satisfaction Survey. Your feedback on AAR programs and services is crucial. The survey takes about 5-10 minutes to complete. Submit the survey by November 1 to be entered into a drawing to win one of 3 free AAR memberships.

ACADEMIC ABBY: Professional Advice from Your Colleagues

Do you have a question about life in academe that you are at a loss to answer by yourself but don't feel you can approach your colleagues with it? Ask Academic Abby! Academic Abby is able to answer questions large and small, from dealing with faculty dilemmas, to tenure issues, to work/life balance troubles. Questions can be submitted anonymously through an online form. Members of the AAR Status of Women in the Profession Committee will respond to each question received. The question and answer will be posted on the Status of Women in the Profession web page and issues of Religious Studies News.
